(Nashville, TN-May 9, 2019)—Acclaimed country band Old Dominion add new dates and cities to their "Make It Sweet Tour." Expanding on an already stacked schedule, the AEG powered outing adds over 30 cities in six countries throughout the end of summer, fall and winter with big names as special guests as Scotty McCreery joins for 8 shows, Michael Ray for 5 and Jordan Davis added to the international run. Morgan Evans, Ryan Griffin and Ryan Hurd are set to open on select dates. See full routing below with new dates in bold and click HERE for more info!

Last week, Old Dominion released their deeply personal new song "Some People Do." The soul baring track, which begs the listener for redemption and second chances, was released following the band's current single "Make It Sweet" going #1 on the Billboard Country Airplay and Mediabase charts.

Old Dominion made their return to Nashville over the weekend with a sold-out performance at Ascend Amphitheater following their performance on the mainstage at Stagecoach Country Music Festival. Click HERE to watch their performance of "Make It Sweet" from the festival!

Last month, Old Dominion won "Group of the Year" at the 54th Annual ACM Awards at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas, NV. The award marks the band's second consecutive win in this category and third ACM Award overall! Click HERE to view! Earlier this week, they were also nominated for "Group Video of the Year" at the upcoming 2019 CMT Music Awards.

About Scotty McCreery

McCreery has earned two back-to-back No. 1 hits from his current album Seasons Change, which debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard Country Album chart: the RIAA Platinum-certified "Five More Minutes" and the RIAA Gold-certified "This is It," which stayed at the top of the charts for two weeks. He co-wrote all 11 songs on Seasons Change, including his new single "In Between" which is a highlight of his live show currently selling out venues across the nation. All four of his albums have debuted at No. 1 on a Billboard Albums chart, with current combined sales surpassing 3 million copies. He's earned four Platinum and two Gold singles; won the 10th season of "American Idol" in 2011; was named the ACM New Artist of the Year in 2011; won the CMT Music Award for Breakthrough Video of the Year ("The Trouble with Girls") in 2012; American Country Awards for New Artist of the Year in 2011 and Breakthrough Artist of the Year in 2013; BMI Awards for writing One of the Top 50 Country Songs of the Year twice (in 2015 for "See You Tonight" and in 2018 for "Five More Minutes"); a Carolina Beach Music Award for National Dance/Shag Song of the Year ("Barefootin'") in 2018; and the NSAI Nashville Songwriter Award for One of the Top Ten Songs I Wish I'd Written ("Five More Minutes") in 2018. The North Carolina native released his first book, Go Big or Go Home: The Journey Toward the Dream, in 2016. McCreery launched his recording career by making history in 2011 as both the first country artist and the youngest male artist of any genre to debut his first studio album, the Platinum-certified Clear as Day, at No. 1 on the all-genre Billboard Top 200 Albums chart.
